Aristotle Consultancy is a one-stop shop offering end-to-end accounting, financial and advisory services. Current market offerings in the finance and legal domain are either very costly and geared towards servicing corporates or offerings are in the form of one-time, arms length piecemeal solutions without any ongoing advice and support which is required for young, high-growth companies. The company was founded to address the gap in the market for high quality, end-to-end, legal and financial services under one umbrella at affordable prices.
