flywings international College of Management studies is a quintessential educational institution situated at the heart of Cochin – the queen of the Arabian Sea, in Kerala, the southern-most state of India. The college can be reached within 30 minutes of driving from the Cochin International Airport.

We envision the socio-economic and ethical well-being of each student. The institution has been functioning since 2003. It is popularly known as EASY institute, since it helps students to land in their dream jobs. We are committed to boost the morale of our students by providing persistent and intensive softskills training and personality development programmes throughout the course. With the grace of God Almighty, we have attained success in our mission and hence have a glittering constellation of well-placed alumni.
