Furtados School of Music (FSM), an enterprise that sowed its visionary seeds in the year 2011 has now blossomed into one of India's leading and most trusted brands in imparting the gift of music to every musically-inclined soul. As it thrives on creativity and innovative thinking, it has radicalized an entire era of music education by launching FSM-Buddy. An online learning platform, which is solely designed with the purpose of extending learning opportunities in a diverse range of creative avenues. As it continues to embrace a versatile approach towards academia, FSM Buddy seeks to revive the essence of passionate learning, which has been restrained by the pressures of our monotonous routines. By creating an enriching learning environment for every promising learner, FSM Buddy has restructured the ways in which learning is perceived by the masses. No longer are we drawn towards the mechanical ways of rote learning or education that encourage passivity and stunt our creative imagination. By redefining the previously held notions of academia, FSM Buddy aspires to create a collaborative learning environment where dreams seem closer to reality, and a place where opportunities are born.
