Tosshead, India's first online event equipment booking digital platform, was founded in November 2018. The e-commerce event equipment and service provider strives to raise the benchmark in the event management industry. The Bengaluru-based company simplifies what would otherwise be a complicated process. Tosshead literally offers a 3-click solution to book online and suitably select from a plethora of event packages and equipment with transparent pricing and instant booking confirmation.

Tosshead's event management solutions are a game changer because of their personalized and customized products and services. Their predefined packages for corporate conferences and team building activities to informal events help in faster decision making for event managers. Apart from equipment, Tosshead's services bouquet includes photography, videography, anchoring/emceeing, disk jockeying, and manpower.
