Mole is a harmless cluster of dead skin cells which can appear anywhere on the body. Some people see moles as a beauty marks whereas some find them unattractive. You can remove them if you feel that it is affecting your looks. There are numerous products that claim to remove unwanted moles effectively; however, there may be some doubts about their safety and effectiveness.

If you are in the queue of mole removal treatment, you should go for the laser treatment. Laser is the most effective way to remove moles which uses light energy to break down pigment in the mole.
